Hi Susan,

Our website is going through a transition, so a lot of the information hasn't been transferred over yet. I've attached the Coeur D'Alene decision document. See pages 40-42 which discuss our action on the tribe's short-term exceedances provision.

Also, were you going to send an updated version of the variance provision (and other implementation tools) for us to take a quick look at? I think you said you were doing some minor changes before sending it to us. No rush, just wanted to make sure you weren't waiting on us.

Thanks,

Hi Matt—I'm trying to find the EPA approval of the Coeur d'Alene tribe standards and the disapproval of the section on STMs? I can't find anything on the EPA website so wonder if the tribe has another name. Can you forward the EPA approval letter, or whatever you referenced yesterday? Just thought it would help me to see exactly what EPA did and the rationale so I understand better.

Thanks--Susan
